

MCSSA Listen & Learn with InvolvedDad

WHO THEY ARE:

InvolvedDad is a fatherhood, family healing, and youth development organization rooted in one belief: When fathers heal, families transform. Through trauma-informed coaching, supervised visitation, legal support, and youth programming, we help fathers rebuild their lives, reconnect with their children, and create safety, stability, and opportunity across generations.

LEARN ABOUT:

Empowering Fathers: Learn how InvolvedDad helps fathers build stronger relationships with their children and become more engaged in their families.

Building Stronger Families: Explore expanding programs and resources designed to support fathers as they navigate parenting, relationships, and family responsibilities.

Strengthening Communities: Discover how InvolvedDad works to promote positive father involvement and create healthier, more connected families and communities.
